

A Virtual Tour of Barolo, City of Wine 2021

by Danilo Poggio contributor | February 19, 2021

Wine connoisseur Danilo Poggio takes us to Barolo in Piedmont, home of the robust Italian wine.

For our new video series with wine connoisseur Danilo Poggio, the first stop is in Barolo, Italy's City of Wine for 2021. The Italian association of Città del Vino, with the support of the Italian Ministry of Agriculture and Forestry, has officially chosen the charming village in the Langhe hills as an Italian wine ambassador. To celebrate this incredible award, Barolo and its 11 municipalities will present a packed calendar of events and initiatives for wine lovers.

Danilo Poggio takes us on a virtual tour of Barolo, from the Conti di Barolo Castle to their vineyards. Davide and Valentina Abbona of Antiche Cantine Marchesi di Barolo winery also provide valuable information about the birth of Barolo.

Uncork a nice bottle of Italian red wine (better if Barolo!), sip, and relax.

Video Credits

Art director Giulia Somma

Music BenSound

Text Stefania Virone Vittor